Promotion of Access to Information Manual

This manual was prepared in accordance with:

sections 14 and 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000
(hereinafter referred to as PAIA)

to address the requirements of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013.
(hereinafter referred to as PoPIA)

This manual applies to:

Garonga Safari Camp (Pty) Ltd

Registration number: 1996/006437/07
(hereinafter referred to as GARONGA)

Version No	Date	Approved by	Changes

Policy Statement

It is GARONGA's policy to conduct its operations in compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements. This Manual regulates access to information and records owned, held by or otherwise under the control of GARONGA and the release of any such information or records by any of GARONGA's directors, officers, employees, agents, or anyone acting on its behalf.

Application

This Manual applies to information and records owned, held by or otherwise under the control of GARONGA and the release of any such information or records.

Objective

The objectives of this Manual are to:

- provide a non-exhaustive list of information, records and other details held by GARONGA;
- set out the requirements on how to request information in terms of PAIA and PoPIA as well as the grounds on which a request may be refused; and
- define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted.

PAIA provides that a person may only request information in terms thereof if that information is required for the exercise or protection of a right. PoPIA provides that a Data Subject may, upon proof of identity, request the Responsible Party to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the Data Subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information. PoPIA further provides that where the Data Subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her/it the Responsible Party must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the requestor pay a deposit for all or part of the fee.

The capacity under which a Requester requests documentation/ information will determine the category he or she falls in. Please note that the Requester category has a bearing on the conditions of access to the information.

Requesters have been classified into four categories:

1. a Personal Requester: requests information about himself/herself/itself.
2. a Representative Requester: requests information relating to and on behalf of someone else.
3. a Third-Party Requester: requests information about another person.
4. a Public Body: requests information in the public interest.

Proof of identity is required to authenticate the request and the Requester. In view hereof, a Requester will be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of their Identity Document or other legal form of identification.

1. Background to the Promotion of Access to Information Act

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (“PAIA”) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the “Constitution”) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

In terms of section 51 of PAIA, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”).

Where a request is made in terms of PAIA, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements, except where PAIA expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

2. Definitions

The following words as shall bear the same meaning as under PoPIA as follows:

Consent means a voluntary, specific, and informed expression of will in terms of which a Data Subject agrees to the processing of Personal Information relating to him or her.

Data Subject means the person to whom personal information relates.

Minister means the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development.

Personal information means information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person, and where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person including:

- (a) information relating to the race, gender, sex, pregnancy, marital status, national, ethnic or social origin, colour, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental health, well-being, disability, religion, conscience, belief, culture, language and birth of the person;
- (b) information relating to the education or the medical, financial, criminal or employment history of the person;

- (c) any identifying number, symbol, e-mail address, physical address, telephone number or other particular assignment to the person;
- (d) the blood type or any other biometric information of the person;
- (e) the personal opinions, views or preferences of the person;
- (f) correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence;
- (g) the views or opinions of another individual about the person; and
- (h) the name of the person if it appears with other personal information relating to the person or if the disclosure of the name itself would reveal information about the person.

Private body means a natural person who carries or has carried on any trade, business or profession in that capacity, a partnership or juristic person.

Processing means any operation or activity or any set of operations, by automatic or manual means, concerning personal information, including:

- (a) the collection, receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation or use;
- (b) dissemination by means of transmission, distribution or making available in any other form; or
- (c) merging, linking, as well as blocking, degradation, erasure or destruction of information.

Public body means any department or state or administration in the national, provincial or local sphere of government or functionary exercising public power.

Responsible Party means a public or private body or any other person which, alone or in conjunction with others, determines the purpose of and means for processing Personal Information.

3. GARONGA

A luxury safari experience at Garonga Safari Co. replenishes mind, body and soul. Garonga Safari Camp, Little Garonga and MCH are safari camps in South Africa, hidden away in the Greater Makalali Private Game Reserve. This is prime Big 5 wildlife territory located west of the Kruger National Park. Special indulgences celebrate our 'safari for the soul' ethos and make this an unforgettable retreat.

4. Purpose of the PAIA Manual

The purpose of PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within GARONGA by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.

To promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies. Section 9 of PAIA recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

- 4.1 limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- 4.2 commercial confidentiality; and
- 4.3 effective, efficient, and good governance;

and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of the guide mentioned in section 10 of PAIA and recognises that the Information Regulator, appointed from time to time, will be responsible to regulate compliance with PAIA and its regulations by private and public bodies.

6. The Information Officer [Section 51(1)(b)]

PAIA prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for public bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess request for access to information. The head of a private body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51.

GARONGA has opted to appoint an Information Officer to assess such a request for access to information as well as to oversee its required functions in terms of PAIA.

The Information Officer appointed in terms of PAIA also refers to the Information Officer as referred to in PoPIA. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required for in terms of both this Act as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of PoPIA.

The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed in terms of section 17 of PAIA as well as section 56 of PoPIA.

This is to render GARONGA as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the PoPIA.

All request for information in terms of this Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.

* Although we have used GARONGA's best endeavours to supply a list of applicable legislation, it is possible that this list may be incomplete. Whenever it comes to GARONGA's attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than set out in PAIA, GARONGA shall update the list accordingly. If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation than listed above, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the GARONGA Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request.

11.2. It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal as set out in this PAIA Manual.

12. Detail to Facilitate a Request for Access to a Record of GARONGA [Section 51(1) (e)]

12.1 The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in PAIA relating to the request for access to a record.

12.2 The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal-, physical-, or electronic mail address as noted in clause 5 above.

12.3 The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify:

12.3.1 the record or records requested; and 12.3.2 the identity of the requester.

12.4 The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal- or Email address of the requester in the Republic;

12.5 The requester must state that he/she requires the information to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such a right [section 53(2)(d)].

12.6 GARONGA will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons to the satisfaction of the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.

- 12.7 The requester shall be advised in writing whether access is granted or denied. If, in addition, the requester requires the reason(s) for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 12.8 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer [section 53(2)(f)].
- 12.9 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally, proving their identity to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- 12.10 The requester must pay the prescribed fee (if applicable), before any further processing can take place.
- 12.11 All information as listed in clause 12 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information Officer may sever a record, if possible, and grant only access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

13. Refusal of Access to Records

13.1. Grounds to Refuse Access

A private body such as GARONGA is entitled to refuse a request for information.

13.1.1. The main grounds for GARONGA to refuse a request for information relates to the:

1. mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person [section 63] or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;

2. mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;
3. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party [section 64] if the record contains:
 - i. trade secrets of the third party;
 - ii. financial, commercial, scientific, or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - iii. information disclosed in confidence by a third party to GARONGA, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - iv. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties [section 65] if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
 - v. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property [section 66];
 - vi. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings [section 67].

13.1.2. The commercial activities [section 68] of a private body, such as GARONGA, which may include:

- i. trade secrets of GARONGA;
- ii. financial, commercial, scientific or technical information - disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of GARONGA;
- iv. information which, if disclosed could put GARONGA at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- iv. a computer program which is owned by GARONGA, and which is protected by copyright;
- v. the research information [section 69] of GARONGA or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of GARONGA, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

13.1.3. Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

13.1.4. All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.

13.1.5. If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the GARONGA Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of PAIA. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the GARONGA Information Officer refuses access to such record based on reasons mentioned above.

14. Remedies Available When GARONGA Refuses a Request

14.1. Internal Remedies

GARONGA does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the GARONGA Information Officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requestor is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the GARONGA Information Officer.

14.2. External Remedies

14.2.1. A requestor that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, may apply to a Court for relief.

14.2.2. A third party dissatisfied with the GARONGA Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a Court for relief.

For purposes of PAIA, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

15. Access to Records Held by GARONGA

15.1. Prerequisites for Access by Personal/Other Requester

15.1.1. Records held by GARONGA may be accessed by requests only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

15.1.2. A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of GARONGA. There are two types of requesters:

- Personal Requester

- i. A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.
- ii. GARONGA will voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record regarding the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested may be charged.

- Other Requester

- iii. This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information regarding a third party.
- ii. In considering such a request, GARONGA will adhere to the provisions of PAIA. Section 71 of PAIA requires that the GARONGA Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party, to whom the requested record relates, of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the GARONGA Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the Information.

15.1.3 GARONGA is not obliged to grant access to such records.

The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of PAIA and as stipulated in Chapter 5; Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

16. Prescribed Fees [Section 51(1)(f)]

16.1. Fees Provided by PAIA

16.1.1. PAIA provides for two types of fees, namely:

- a. a request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and
- b. an access fee, which is paid by all requesters if a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs incurred by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

- 16.1.2. When the request is received by the GARONGA Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request [section 54(1)].
- 16.1.3. If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the GARONGA Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- 16.1.4. The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 16.1.5. A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for search, preparation and reproduction, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure inclusive of making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 16.1.6. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the GARONGA Information Officer must repay the deposit to the requester.

17. Reproduction Fee

Where GARONGA has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

Reproduction of Information Fees	Fees to be Charged:
Information in an A-4 size page photocopy or part thereof	R 1,10
A printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof	R 0,75
A copy in computer-readable format, for example: Compact disc	R 70,00
A transcription of visual images, in an A4-size page or part thereof	R 40,00
A copy of visual images	R 60,00
A transcription of an audio record for an A4-size page or part thereof	R 20,00
A copy of an audio record	R 30,00

Request Fees

Where a requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50,00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.

Access Fees

An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of PAIA or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8).

The applicable access fees which will be payable are:

Access of Information Fees

Fees to be Charged:

18.1.3. GARONGA will notify the requester in writing should an extension be required.

19. Protection of Personal Information that is Processed by GARONGA

19.1 Chapter 3 of PoPIA provides for the minimum Conditions for Lawful Processing of Personal Information by a Responsible Party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in PoPIA.

19.2 GARONGA needs Personal Information relating to both individual and juristic persons to carry out its business and organisational functions. The way this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by GARONGA. GARONGA is accordingly a Responsible Party for the purposes of PoPIA and will ensure that the Personal Information of a Data Subject:

- 19.2.1 is processed lawfully, fairly, and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to Data Subjects when their data is collected by GARONGA, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. GARONGA must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process Personal Information to ensure information;
- 19.2.2 is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected;
- 19.2.3 will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that processing is compatible with the original purpose.
- 19.2.4 is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected;
- 19.2.5 is accurate and kept up to date;
- 19.2.6 will not be kept for longer than necessary;
- 19.2.7 is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that Personal Information, in both physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by GARONGA, in order to protect against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage;
- 19.2.8 is processed in accordance with the rights of Data Subjects, where applicable. Data Subjects have the right to:
- (i) be notified that their Personal Information is being collected by GARONGA.
 - (ii) the Data Subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach;
 - (iii) know whether GARONGA holds Personal Information about them, and to have access to that information. Any request for information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Manual;
 - (iv) request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained personal information;
 - (v) object to GARONGA's use of their Personal Information and request the deletion of such Personal Information (deletion would be subject to GARONGA's record keeping requirements);

- (vi) object to the processing of Personal Information for purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and
- (vii) complain to the Information Regulator regarding an alleged infringement of any of the rights protected under POPIA and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his, her or its personal information.

19.3. Purpose of the Processing of Personal Information

As outlined above, Personal Information may only be processed for a specific purpose. The purposes for which GARONGA processes or will process Personal Information is set out in Part 1 of Appendix 2 hereto.

19.4. Categories of Data Subjects and Personal Information / Special Personal Information relating thereto

As per section 1 of PoPIA, a Data Subject may either be a natural or a juristic person. Part 2 of Appendix 2 hereto sets out the various categories of Data Subjects that GARONGA Processes Personal Information on and the types of Personal Information relating thereto.

19.5. Recipients of Personal Information

Part 3 of Appendix 2 hereto outlines the recipients to whom GARONGA may provide a Data Subjects Personal Information to.

19.6. Cross-border flows of Personal Information

19.6.1. Section 72 of PoPIA provides that Personal Information may only be transferred out of the Republic of South Africa if the:

- (i) recipient country can offer such data an “adequate level” of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially similar to the Conditions for Lawful Processing as contained in PoPIA; or
- (ii) Data Subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information; or
- (iii) transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Data Subject and the Responsible Party; or
- (iv) transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the Responsible Party and a third party, in the interests of the Data Subject; or

- (v) the transfer is for the benefit of the Data Subject, and it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the consent of the Data Subject, and if it were, the Data Subject, would likely provide such consent.

19.6.2. Part 4 of Appendix 2 hereto sets out the planned cross-border transfers of Personal Information and the condition from above that applies thereto.

19.7. Description of information security measures to be implemented by GARONGA

Part 5 of Appendix 2 hereto sets out the types of security measures to be implemented by GARONGA to ensure that Personal Information is respected and protected. A preliminary assessment of the suitability of the information security measures implemented or to be implemented by GARONGA may be conducted to ensure that the Personal Information that is processed by GARONGA is safeguarded and Processed in accordance with the Conditions for Lawful Processing.

19.8 Objection to the Processing of Personal Information by a Data Subject
